combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS: James T. Close. H. W. Thomas. Thomas T. Hill, T. B. Robertson, Dr. R. H. Stabler, R. H. Carter, Wm. Wright, R. F. Lester, Ben. F. Nalle, George E. French, Wm. C. Knight.

THE IMP OF THE GAS METER .- Mr. Ross has given notice of his intention to apply for a bill authorising the appointment of an Inspector of Gas. Without being able to state at present that the form in which Mr. Ross wishes to meet the evil is the best, still, all gas consumers become frequently aware that the gas meters perform strange antics, and that gas is not at all times the most odorous of fluids. The apparatus by which gas is usually measured, and which is called a meter-some say cheater-is an instrument the working of which the public are wholly unacquainted with. It may be all right, but the interior of that inscrutable black iron box performs strange tricks. Sometimes, during a summer quarter, the active imp inside has been known to consume more gas than during a winter quarter, the same number of burners being in operation. Sometimes it has run up a bill of frightful proportions, and householders who would prefer to use gas on account of its brilliancy and safety, fly rather to the abominations of candles and coal oil, in order to escape the infliction of the imp of the meter. These meters being entirely in the hands of the respective companies, no tangible guarantee exists to which the public can appeal. If one buys a pound of tea, a bushel of wheat, or a yard of cloth, we can all see that weight and measure are duly given. But who knows anything about that satanic whirligig which is so secretly concealed inside the black box, hid away, mostly, down the cellar? He may be a very faithful imp; a very conscientious imp; a very paragon of upright devils, but his acts frequently belie him. Now, the public should have some means through an inspector or otherwise, of knowing that this little fellow does not work too fast-is not too much the servant of his own master. Were the publie sure that they would be called to pay for only what they consumed, a large accession would take place to those who use gas .--Those who burn it now are compelled to do

ALLEGED ANCIENT RUINS IN THE UNITED STATES .- A new stimulus is likely to be given to American archæology, by a discovery alleged to have been recently made some ninety miles Northeast of Fort Staunton, a long account of which has just appeared in the Fort Smith (Ark.) Times. We condense: The plain upon which lie the massive relics of gorgeous temples and magnificent halls, slope gradually toward the river Pecos, and is very fertile, crossed by a gurgling stream of purest water, that not only sustains a rich vegetation, but perhaps furnished with this necessary element the thousands who once inhabited this present wilderness. The city was probably built by a warlike race, as it is quadrangular and arranged with skill, to afford the highest protection against an exterior foe, many of the buildings on the outer line being pierced with loopholes, as though calculated for the use of weapons. Several of the buildings are of vast size, and built of massive blocks of dark granite rock, which could only have been wrought to their present condition by a vast amount of labor .-There are the ruins of three noble edifices, each presenting a front of three hundred feet, made of ponderous blocks of stone, and the dilapidated walls are even now thirtyfive feet high. There are no partitions in the area of the (middle) supposed temple, so that the room must have been vast; and there are also carvings in bas relief and fresco work. Appearances justify the conclusion that these silent ruins could once boast of halls as gorgeously decorated by the artist's hand, as hose of Thebes and Palmyra. The buildings are all loopholed on each side, much resembling that found in the old feudal castles of Europe, designed for the use of archers .-The blocks of which these edifices are composed, are cemented together by a species of mortar of a bituminous character, which has such tenacity that vast masses of wall have fallen down without the blocks being detached by the shock. GRAND FOURTH OF JULY EXCURSION TO PINEY POINT, POINT LOOKOUT, NOR-
